

Dear EXPECTANT Parents,

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us! We are very much looking forward to getting to know you. We hope to share a little of our story with you, and perhaps if the feeling is right, you may choose to join your story with ours, as both of our worlds change forever.

Our hearts are with you, and we know that you will make a choice that blesses your life and the life of your beautiful little one.

Love, Bill and Lindsay

The Story of Us:

We waited a long time to find each other!

We were nearly 30 when we went on our first date in February 2018 in a small gelato shop in Mesa, AZ. Bill was first attracted to how Lindsay's greatest desire in life is to be a full-time mom,

how easy she was to talk to, and her love of life. Lindsay loved that Bill had a strong desire and plan to support a family, that he teases her, and that he treats her better than anyone else she has ever met. We were married seven months later in the Gilbert, AZ temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day

Saints.

a little about Bill...

Bill's dad was a lawyer for the military, so he was fortunate to spend his early years in Germany and Italy. His mom was a stay at stay-at-home mom. He moved to California when he was 8. In high school, he played lacrosse, and at he played guitar. At 19, he served 2 years as a missionary in Italy. He completed his undergraduate degree in Psychology, and graduated from Dental School at Midwestern University in Glendale, AZ.

a little about Lindsay...

Lindsay grew up in a rural town in Idaho with 4 sisters and 1 brother. Lindsay's dad was an electrical engineer and her mom was a stay-at-home mom. She has been playing cello at age 10. In high school Lindsay loved being part of orchestra, choir, and plays. She served a full time mission for 18 months in Arizona. She studied music at BYU-Idaho, then started teaching orchestra in Mesa, AZ.

a journey we have been through...

We just started to date seriously when Lindsay received a diagnosis of metastatic breast cancer in May of 2018. "You don't have to stick around for this, it could get pretty crazy," she told him.

"I'm not going anywhere," he responded. And he hasn't.

Bill describes Lindsay:

Everyone like Lindsey and gravitates to her. She's fun to get involved in any activity or adventure, and she's fearless to try something new. Her students look up to her as more than just a teacher, but I mentor, friend, and a confident. If someone isn't happy, she notices and his quick to cheer them up. She cares about people and kids and strive to do what is best, for herself and for them. She is natural around children, and they are quick to show affection towards her. She is eager to learn and improve, and genuine and honest and everything about her.

I know she'll make a great mother because she is willing to put someone else first, listen to and love them, and make them feel special in capable.

Lindsay describes Bill:

I always feel loved and safe with Bill! He is a genuine, kind, and I know I can talk with him about anything on my mind. He lightens my mood when I feel stressed, makes me laugh and teases me. He is responsible in service – orientated; when he sees a need in the house, he jumps to fill it. We are equal partners and he takes my Deas an opinion seriously. Bill is a master of being aware of other people and their emotions and needs. He is going to be a great dad because he has a gift for making those near him feel seen, important, and cared for. He is committed to providing for our family and wants to have a positive relationship with our children.

Bill and Lindsay's careers:

Bill is a dentist and works with his brother, Ben (also a dentist). He LOVES his job, working with his brother, and helping people have more beautiful smiles.

Lindsay is an elementary orchestra teacher. She loves connecting with kids and helping them discover how to learn from failure. She plans to quit teaching in the public school when she becomes a mother, but will continue teaching private lessons and performing with the Symphony Orchestra.

OUR FAMILIES:

We are guessing you have a lot on your mind; certainly you have worries and fears and hopes and dreams for you and your child. We're not worried about you. We know that you'll make the best choice for you and your sweet one. When you do, God will do what He does best, making it all work out for good. We love you and are praying for you!

Love,

Bill and Lindsay
